

August 2020 results - Issued certificates

In August 2020, the Energy Regulatory Agency issued certificates for the commissioning of 11 new or reconstructed power supply facilities, as well as for the installation of external power supply facilities at 11 construction sites that changed the power supply scheme. At the same time, the design documentation of 20 construction sites for the supply of electricity was considered and approved, due to the identified shortcomings, the design documentation for electrical installations of 4 construction sites was refused.

In August 2020, the Energy Regulatory Agency issued certificates for the commissioning of 11 new or reconstructed power supply facilities, as well as for the installation of external power supply facilities simultaneously with a change in the power supply scheme. Design documentation of electrical installations d. 20 construction objects were examined and approved; due to the identified deficiencies, it was refused to fulfill the design documentation of electrical installations of 4 construction objects.

During the reporting period, 1 case of illegal connection to the gas distribution network without technical documentation in violation of the requirements of the "Rules for the use of gas" was revealed, and the gas distributor was instructed to do this.

According to the relevant articles of the Code of Administrative Offenses, the branches of the Energy Regulatory Agency have a full monthly fee.

With the participation of representatives of "Azerenerji" OJSC and "Azerishig" OJSC, an examination of the technical condition of 2 electricity meters was carried out, the circuits and coefficients of current transformers were checked and sealed, and the meter readings were read by a computer.

During this period, on the basis of consumer requests, 23 people at 6 enterprises, electrical equipment specialists and safety engineers were tested for professional knowledge of labor protection, maintenance and safety rules, methodological assistance was provided to individuals.